Mr. Quinn Tamm
Executive Director
International Association of Chiefs of Police
11 Firstfield Road
Gaithersburg, Maryland 20760

Dear Quinn:

During the period of February 19 to March 2, 1973, the FBI will conduct a specialized school on Police-Community Relations for local law enforcement supervisory and training personnel. This training will be held at our training facility at Quantico, Virginia, and will be attended by approximately 36 law enforcement officials representing major metropolitan departments.

I would like to extend an invitation to [redacted] to address this school on the topic, "Minority Recruitment, Selection and Promotion," during the afternoon of February 26, 1973.

Although I am aware of [redacted] numerous commitments, his participation at this training session will be deeply appreciated.

Sincerely,

Pat
